Frama's Shoebox

11-year-old Frama lives in a remote community in Nigeria where very few people have heard about Jesus. She's an orphan, lovingly cared for by her grandmother, though life is very hard. Frama dreams of becoming an actress one day—but even affording a simple pair of slippers seemed out of reach.

Her old slippers were so worn out they couldn't be repaired. Her grandmother tried fixing them with nails, but the sharp ends pressed into Frama's feet, making walking painful.

When a local church partner invited her to an Operation Christmas Child outreach event, Frama went with curiosity. As the Gospel was shared, the Holy Spirit touched Frama's heart, and she chose to accept Jesus Christ as her Lord and Saviour.

Then came the time to open her shoebox gift. As she lifted the lid, she looked inside, and to her delight, there she discovered a brand-new pair of slippers inside! Overwhelmed with joy, Frama burst into tears, thanking God for seeing her need and providing for her in such a beautiful and miraculous way.
